

CHAPTER 19
LICENSES (1)

- 19-1. Disposition of Funds
- 19-2. Transferability Generally
- 19-3. Revocation Generally
- 19-4. Liability Insurance on Vehicle Operated in Licenses Business

Sec. 19-1. Disposition of Funds

All money paid to the city auditor for any license required by this Code or other city ordinances shall be turned over to the city auditor, shall be placed to the credit of the license fund and shall be disbursed in the same manner as funds derived from the usual course of taxation.

Sec. 19-2. Transferability Generally

It shall be unlawful for the holder of any license issued under this Code to transfer the same unless otherwise provided in this Code.

Sec. 19-3. Revocation Generally

The city council shall have the right to revoke any license issued under this Code.

Sec. 19-4. Liability Insurance on Vehicles Operated in Licensed Business

The proprietors of any business in the city who are required to obtain a city license for such business and who operate motor vehicles in such business in the city shall procure and file with the city auditor an indemnity insurance policy conditioned; in effect, to pay any judgment for damages to any person or property for the death of any person caused by the negligence, omission or want or care of operating such vehicles by the license or his agents or servants within the city during the life of the license.

Such insurance policy shall, unless otherwise specified in this Code be in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars for damage to property, ten thousand dollars for the bodily injury or death of all persons injured or killed in any one accident, cover each vehicle used in the licensed business.

Such indemnity policy shall be executed by a surety, casualty or indemnity company authorized to do business and doing business in the state.

1. For state law authorizing the city to license the sale of milk, see NDCC: 40-02-02, 2.